To the most Noble and Illustrious

HENRY DUKE OF BEAUFORT

Earle & Marquess of Worcester, &c.

May it please your Grace.

Musick like other Arts and Sciences is Exceedingly improv'd, and especially in this our Nation, as it is now adorned with so many Excellent Masters: which considered I must of necessity own my Presumption, in laying these my Endeavours at your Grace's Feet; and aspiring to shelter them under so noble a Patronage, and Protection.

But having lately had the Honour to be made one of your Graces Servants, I thought my self under an indispensible obligation, and that I could not make this offering to any other without derogating from the dignity of your Grace's most Eminent Worth and Quality.

Hence then your Grace may be assur'd that it is not the least good Opi=nion of my own Works, nor Presumption in my own Merits that have prevail'd upon me; but a Stedfast Reliance on your Graces ever accustom'd Goodness and inbred Generosity; on which is founded my Hopes of a Favourable Acceptance.

If I have been so happy in these Compositions as to have done any thing that may contribute to your Graces diversion; I shall think the time of my Forreign Travels successfully spent, and all my past labour and Pains amply rewarded, it being my highest Aime, and Chiefest Ambition, to continue as I am,

Your Graces

Most humble, truly devoted, and most Obedient Servant.

Matthew Novell
